An hors concours entry must have qualified to ride the freestyle. Freestyles ridden in the Bronze competition do not require a minimum technical score. The Freestyle tests offered are First Level to FEI Grand Prix including FEI Para Equestrian.

Awards for DNB #1, #2, #3 – Bronze and Gold competitions:

Ribbons for all classes will be awarded from 1st place to 6th place.

In both the Bronze and Gold competitions, a high point award will be presented to each level and division (example: Training Level Junior) to the horse and rider combination that receives the highest average of their best two scores. A reserve high point award will be presented to each level and division to the horse and rider combination that receives the second highest average of scores. If a division has only one horse and rider combination, the show committee can choose to combine consecutive levels for this award (example: Third/Fourth Level). Freestyle scores cannot count towards the above awards. For horse rider combinations riding in consecutive levels (ie First and Second Level) prizes will be awarded based for the highest level competed.

Ribbons and prizes for Bronze and Gold shows will be available at the show office.

Ride Times and Competition Office Hours:

Available 2 days before the start of the competition at: www.dressagenb.com. The office will be open:

- Saturday & Sunday – 1 hour prior to the start of show and Saturday 30 min after the last ride of the day

Drug Testing:

“Any horse entered in any class at a competition may be selected for equine medication control while at the event location.” The testing fee is $8 per entry for Gold competition and $4 for Bronze competition.

Person(s) Responsible:

The Person(s) Responsible (PR) for a horse must be an adult who has, or shares responsibility for the care, training, custody, and performance of the horse and who has official responsibility for that horse under EC Rules. The PR is liable under the penalty provisions of the applicable EC Rules for any rule violations.

Every entry form for an EC sanctioned competition must identify the PR and be signed by the PR.

The Person Responsible is ultimately responsible for the condition, fitness and management of the horse and is alone responsible for any act performed by himself/herself or by any other person with authorized access to the horse in the stables, elsewhere on the grounds, or while the horse is being ridden, driven or exercised.

A: For adult entries into EC sanctioned competitions the PR shall be either the trainer, the owner of the horse of the competitor who rides or drives the horse during the EC sanctioned competition.

B: For Junior entries into EC sanctioned competitions the Junior competitor cannot be the PR. For Junior entries the PR may be either the trainer, the owner of the horse, or a parent/guardian of the Junior competitor. See A1011.

Memberships:

All Gold level competitors are required to have the following memberships: PTSO, Equestrian Canada Gold sport license and Dressage Canada Affiliate membership (senior or junior). Owners of a horse competing at the Gold level must have the following memberships: PTSO, Equestrian Canada Gold sport license. All Bronze level competitors are required to have the following memberships: PTSO and Equestrian Canada Bronze sport license or higher. Owners of a horse competing at the Bronze level must have the following memberships: PTSO and Equestrian Canada Bronze sport license or higher. The Person Responsible must hold a valid EC Sport License at the same level or higher in which the horse is competing and a PTSO membership. However, when the competitor is a Junior, the competitor cannot be the Person Responsible and the Person Responsible (PR) must be an EC Sport License holder in good standing OR in the case of junior/minor owner entries, a parent/guardian is entitled to sign as PR. In the case of USEF member entries PR may also be a USEF member in good standing (see Article A213.2). Proof of the Rider, Owner and Person Responsible memberships (photocopies) must be included with the entry form; otherwise entry will be subjected to an incomplete entry fee. Temporary EC Gold sport license may be purchased through the competition office. Also, temporary sport license is not available for bronze level. Competitors in classes restricted by age and/or amateur status must be able to provide proof of eligibility. Amateur status is issued by Equestrian Canada. An eligible Temporary Sport License holder may compete in amateur classes provided an Amateur Affidavit has been completed and is on file with the competition Secretary.

Horse Recordings:

To compete at the Gold level, all Canadian competing horses must have a current horse recording for 2024. (A602.4) If the owner is a temporary sport licence holder, a temporary horse recording number must be purchased through the competition office. Foreign entries must sign an affidavit. Results achieved while competing with a temporary sport license will not be used to qualify for Year End Awards or Championship. A valid and current EC FEI-Recognized National Passport with current horse recording component is also acceptable.

Ponies:

Ponies entering FEI Pony division must have official measurement cards prior to entry at a competition. If a pony requires a measurement card, please contact the show manager prior to the competition. See E7.11.5.1

Stabling:

Stabling fees in the old barns will be $28/night for an 8x8, $56/night for an 8x16. Stabling in the new barn will be $38 for an 10x12. Shaving can be purchased for $9/bag. (shaving prices are subject to change depending on price set by PLP) Stabling will only be available after 12pm Friday. Competition management must be notified if competitors plan to remove horses from the competition before the end of the competition. Competitors will be asked to provide their own water buckets and hay. Please note that if you have a preference for stabling arrangements, please make a note on your entry form.

Tack Stall:

Please note that it is PLP Show Centre policy states that aisle ways are to be kept clear of equipment, hay, feed and horses at all times. This will be strictly enforced. Tack stalls in the old barns are available at a cost of $28/night for an 8x8 and $56/night for an 8x16. Tack stalls in the new barn are available at a cost of $38 for an 10x12.

Haul in:

A haul in fee of $20/day will be applied per horse. This fee is applied to horses hauling in for the show and not stabling.

Directions:

For easiest access to the Princess Louise Show Park, 10 Leonard Road, Sussex NB, E2E 2N7, take Exit 195 on Hwy 1, following Marble Street into town. Cross the railroad tracks at the end of Marble Street and take the next right into Princess Louise Park. The show centre is behind the Eighth Hussars Sports Centre.

Equestrian Canada
STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLE

Equestrian Canada (EC), the national equestrian federation of Canada, supports adherence to humane treatment of horses in all activities under its jurisdiction.

All persons shall be committed to:

- Upholding the welfare of horses, regardless of value, as a primary consideration in all activities.
- Requiring that horses be treated with kindness, respect, and the compassion that they deserve, and that they never be subjected to mistreatment
- Ensuring that all equestrians including owners, trainers and competitors and their respective agents use responsible care in the handling, treatment and transportation of their horses as well as horses placed in their care for any purpose.
- Providing for the continuous well-being of horses by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professional and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort and safety as a matter of standard operating procedure.
- Providing current information on Code of Practice for the Care and Handling of Equines and other equine health and welfare initiatives.
- Continuing to support scientific studies on equine health and welfare.
- Requiring that owners, trainers and competitors to know and follow their sanctioning organization's rules and to work within industry regulations in all equestrian competitions and
- Actively promoting the development and adherence of competition rules and regulations that protect the welfare of the horse

The standard by which conduct or treatment will be measured is that which a person, informed and experienced in generally accepted equine training and competition procedures, would determine to be neither cruel, abusive nor inhuman.
